ILL-FATED FACTORY TO BE DYNAMITED

(From the San Francisco Daily News of August 20th.)

Dynamiters will blow up the Carnegie Brick and Pottery Co. plant near Livermore next week.

This is not a "black hand" threat nor a plot; it's a business proposition.

The pottery works, owned by the wrecked California Safe Deposit and Trust Co. closed down four years ago and since machinery and lumber has been salvaged the buildings are considered useless now. The United Wrecking Co. will raze the property and turn it back again into pasture land.

The original equipment cost was $2,500,000.

GUILTY OF HAVING MADE GOOD

(From the Redding Searchlight.)
If California wants a senator who will be something more than a peddler of pork, voters must cease to fall for the old party-line bogie.

As we understand it, the Keesling folk ask the people of California to refuse to elect Hiram W. Johnson to the senate because he is guilty of having made good as Governor of California.

Governor Hiram W. Johnson, government of California our people candidate for United States Senator will speak in Centerville next Monday afternoon at 2:30 P. M. Six years ago when the Governor promised to kick the old Herrin machine "out of control of the

Not Guilty - Plea

Separate trials will be asked to-day by the five members of the Alameda county Board of Education accused of malfeasance in office by the grand jury, when their cases come up to be set for hearing in the Superior Court. Attorney M. C. Chapman, representing George W. Frick, superintendent of schools, and clerk of the board, C. L. Beldenbach; P. M. Fisher and William McDonald, entered pleas of not guilty when the accused were arraigned before Superior Judge F. B. Ogden.

Miss Genevieve McKeever, the fifth member of the board, was represented by the law firm of Fitzgerald, Abbott & Beardsley, and entered a similar plea.

"We desire a speedy trial, as we are galling under the yoke," said Attorney Chapman to the court.

District Attorney Hynes presented information to the grand jury tending to show that the members of the board held "special" meetings for the sole purpose of collecting $5 a day allowed by law, but that they failed to be present at the meetings, cashing their salary warrants on claims, notwithstanding.

Upon the outcome of the present cases depends further actions to recover the amounts alleged to have been illegally collected, according to the district attorney.

only have the big corporations been put under the control of the people but many laws have been passed in the interest of the men, women and children of this State.

Now California has a chance to help to do in the nation what has been done in California. With Governor Johnson representing us in the United States senate, the whole nation will have the benefit of his forceful personality. No abler champion of the rights of humanity has risen in this country since Abraham Lincoln. Johnson is more than a politician. He is a great constructive statesman and best of all, his constructive measures are founded on justice for all the people. No public man in American history has achieved greater results for the people.

His wonderful record of the past six years entitles him to any honor the people of this State can bestow upon him. The record crowds at his meetings in every part of the State, north and south as well, prove that the people appreciate Johnson's fidelity to popular government and the cause of humanity.

Go to Centerville next Monday and hear your next United States senator, California's prize winner before the nation in 1920.

BRAINS VS. BEAUTY

(From S. F. Bulletin.)

Willis H. Booth, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for the Senate, is described by his feminine admirers as "Adonis-like," but indications are that the voters will prefer a candidate who is Johnson-like.

PEOPLE VS. FINANCIAL GROUP

(From the Ukiah Times.)

The people of California are now dominant in California politics. They should also be dominant in the United States Senator. This they can be if they insist upon a man whose purpose is to represent them and not the financial group of the State.

BOOTH IN TOWNSHIP

Willis H. Booth, accompanied by his campaign manager and F. B. Granger of Broadmoor, formerly of Alvarado, spent the day Thursday electioneering in Washington Township.

COUNTY FAIR AT PLEASANTON SEPT. 13 TO 17 INCLUSIVE

Interest is still living up and every day new ones are being heard from who intend to exhibit at the Fair. Two years nonuse of the buildings finds them well covered with dust and dirt and work is now going on cleaning up in preparation for the opening on Wednesday, September 13. All intending exhibitors should make entries early and not wait until the last moment, so that the necessary office work and allotting of space can be accomplished with more ease and less strain and bustle. It will also make a vast difference in the promptness with which exhibitors are served if it is known beforehand what will be brought in. This is mentioned because many in the past have been lax in heeding the rules and brought in exhibits on the opening day without previously entering same.

It is promised and guaranteed that the Wild West Show which is programmed for Saturday and Sunday shall be first class in every particular, and it was only under this condition that the Fair management accepted it as a feature, realizing as they did, that some of these shows in the past have been the biggest kind of fakes.

The Entertainment Committee are disappointed in not being able to secure the Alameda County Chorus for an hour and a half concert for Sunday afternoon which would have been a great treat for the people in this part of the County. Details had been arranged but the Choral managers finally concluded that it would not be feasible for that afternoon, so at this time we are not able to announce a definite conclusion. It is hoped though to put it through in some way.

This Committee is taking a new departure in the matter of band music. It is proposed to have a different band for each day, and to this end Pleasanton and Livermore Band will play on Thursday. Mission San Jose on Friday, San Leandro on Saturday and Hayward Band on Sunday. This, it is believed will bring out a better attendance of local people.

On the added list of intending exhibitors are Easton & Ward, of Burlingame, with Shire Horses, Mrs. Anderson, with several entries in the saddle class, also Miss Ethel B. Davie of San Francisco and E. E. Hall in the same class.

Standard Oil Co., Spring Valley Water Co., Pacific Gas & Electric Co., Spreckels Sugar Co., Sperry Flour Co.

RANCHER LOSES LIFE AS WAGON OVERTURNS

Orrin Prowse, foreman of the Irvington ranch of A. A. Moore, San Francisco attorney, yesterday lost his life while hrolled with him down a steep cliff and into a creek bottom near Irvington.

Prowse, who was 50 years old, is survived by a widow and three young children. Prowse was driving out to the ranch from Irvington when his team became frightened and ran away. The wagon was overturned and his neck was broken in the fall.

SPORTING GOSSIP

Justice Richmond held court as usual in San Leandro last Thursday during the absence of Justice Mitchell.

Eddie Fries, formerly of the Niles-Essanay Indians and sporting editor of The Press writes that he would be glad to hear from his old friends in Niles. Fries is now playing with the Tacoma team in the Northwestern League.

TREES TRIMMED DOWN

Roadmaster T. J. Sullivan had men at work last week trimming the spare branches from some of the trees on the various roads in the Niles district, thereby adding to the safety of drivers.

WHAT THE PEOPLES WATER CO. SCHEME MEANT

Three years ago when the effort was made to organize the Metropolitan Water District, Peter C. Crosby was the principal campaigner for that scheme. In order to understand just what the success of that movement meant it is necessary to review a few of its ugliest features.

The law itself was prepared by the emissaries of the Peoples Water Co. and sneaked through the legislature. By it the Alvarado section was included in the proposed district against the wishes and in spite of the protests of that section. This provision of the law was put through the legislature after we had shown our opposition to any further diversion of the water of this section. The principal reason for placing this provision in the law and later extending the boundary of the proposed district to the Baker ranch was to give Oakland the control of our underground water supply. By incorporating a rich water bearing section of the township in the Oakland district, Oakland's claim on the water would be strengthened. In other words our section was to be delivered legally bound and gagged to Oakland and then we were to be robbed at their leisure.

The next and one of the most obnoxious features of the law was the power given to the Board of Directors. In the first place they were appointive and in the second had unusual power. It was openly asserted that it even gave them the power to acquire the Peoples Water Co. properties without a vote of the people. It was in order to meet this objection that the so-called "gentleman's agreement" was put forth.

Another disreputable feature of the proposition at that time was the interest of the Oakland banks in the proposed sale of the Water Co. properties. They stood to lose in the neighborhood of two million dollars and it was their influence that backed the scheme at that time. Their grave mistake however was in the selection of the notorious Frank Leavitt to manage their campaign. The slush fund that he used was one of the strong factors in beating the proposition. Peter C. Crosby's friendliness to Banker Carlson, his alliance with him this year in the "get Johnson" campaign, can easily be accounted for by the action of Crosby three years ago in stumping the district for the rotten proposition.

As a result of the attempt to force the unloading of the Peoples Water Co. through the formation of the so-called Metropolitan Water District we were forced to carry the fight into Oakland. Fortunately the people of Oakland came to our relief and first delayed the election and finally beat it. Our own position has been strengthened since then by the annexation of the Alvarado section to our own district. But we must not lose sight of the fact that our enemies still have hopes to kill off our district. The influence of the water companies and their corporation allies is undeniably strong in the county court house in Oakland. If a reversal in public sentiment toward reaction is confirmed in the election next Tuesday they will grow bolder. The State supreme court is still composed principally of men who were elected by the old corporation regime. There is only one weapon that our people have just now and that is their ballot.

We have been through all the stages of the water fight. We know the enemies of our district secret and open. We warn the people of Washington Township now that a flattering vote in favor of Peter C. Crosby will be interpreted to mean that a man may publicly aid the enemies of our district and yet such betrayal will be overlooked and his acts condoned.

If our own people deliberately put an additional club into the hands of their enemies it will be an act of supreme folly. With reaction again in the saddle our chances for saving our water supply will go glimmering. With reaction strongly rebuked our rights will be considered and respected.

It is no time for personal friendship when you are in a life and death struggle. Men who give aid and comfort to your enemies do not deserve your support. More than that it is your duty to call down any politician or set of politicians who lend themselves to such a scheme.

The time to approve or disapprove the action of the men who have sold our interests out to the Peoples Water Company is next Tuesday.

It is to the men and women whose homes and property are at stake in this water district fight that we must look to next Tuesday. If you do not actively resent the action of the men who have constantly aided and supported the water robbers you will have only yourselves to blame when the next trick is played against you.

Let the men in Oakland who for years have secretly served the corporations hear from you next Tuesday. Use your power, your only power, in your own defense. Now is the time to make it count. Now is the time and the opportunity to teach the lesson that those politicians who are not openly and consistently with us in this fight need expect no consideration at our hands. It is no pleasant duty on our part to publish such an article as this. But we would be false to our trust if we failed to do so.

DEVELOPMENTS IN WATER SITUATION FAVOR OUR FIGHT

The progress of events on both sides of the bay promise to work to the benefit of our district. In San Francisco the development of the Hetch Hetchy supply is going ahead. Work is now actually in progress on a large scale. Every million dollars spent in the development of that supply will commit the metropolis more strongly to that project and make harder any attempt to force the city to recede in its plan. While it may be the plan of those at present in charge of the work to proceed only with the development of a power supply, the pressure of public opinion will force the completion of the system and the bringing in of water will be the logical outcome of the situation unless the present supply can be greatly increased at once.

On this side of the bay the movement is strongly against the Peoples Water Co. In fact there is a strong current of sentiment absolutely against a purchase of the system at the Railroad Commission's figures. There is also a growing sentiment that no further diversions of water from this side of the bay should be tolerated. If our county officials were to take a positive stand in this matter they would be strongly backed by popular sentiment.

The Alameda County Water District holds the key to the situation and all we need to do is to hold firmly to our rights for another year and our water supply will be saved. Because of this situation we should not surrender any of our rights. We should also do anything in our power to prevent the strengthening of the corporation influence in this county.

WILL BRING SUIT AGAINST PEOPLES WATER CO.

The directors of the Alameda County Water District have instructed their attorney John T. Nourse to begin suit against the Peoples Water Co. The fight against the Spring Valley Water Co. has delayed the prosecution of this suit. Every sort of delay has been offered by the latter company. For months they have been offering to settle the controversy but the directors have been compelled to reject their offers as impossible. There is only one basis on which the directors are willing to agree with the company and that is that all the people of this district, every property owners in it, no matter how small shall be absolutely guaranteed in his rights. At present the proposition of leaving the whole matter to the California State Water Commission for adjudication is being discussed. As the directors and the water company are deadlocked and the only other resource is the courts, the State Water Commission is favored by the directors. It is the only body to which the directors are willing to submit the matter for arbitration. Otherwise the case must go to trial.

It is believed that the suit against the Peoples Water Co. should be pressed in order that it shall not acquire any additional rights to the water of the Alvarado section. The data which the district has collected will be available against the Peoples Water Co. as well as against the Spring Valley or any other company.

The Press believes that the suit against the Peoples Water Co. should no longer be delayed.

LIES ABOUT COST OF STATE ADMINISTRATION ANSWERED BY MAN WHO KNOWS THE FACTS

How much more beneficial it would be for California as a whole, and for every county, city town and village, and for every business concern and individual in the commonwealth, if our political campaigns could be purged of the idiotic attacks on the financial integrity of the State! How much more helpful it would be in the task of building up the industries of California if the following facts were made known to the entire United States.

That no private corporation controls its government.

That 90 per cent of its state revenues are derived from just taxation on corporations, under a system of taxation devised by corporation lawyers.

That during the last five and a half years the average increase in appropriations has been the smallest in the history of the State. Previously 21.5 per cent, and in the last five and a half years 11.8 per cent.

That in January, 1911, there was a deficit of $261,000 in the State treasury.

IF THE WORLD KNEW TRUTH CONCERNING CALIFORNIA'S STATE GOVERNMENT

WHAT THE JOHNSON ADMINISTRATION HAS ACCOMPLISHED

By John Francis Neyland, Chairman State Board of Control

Today there is a surplus of $4,500,000.

That the State makes its appropriations on a budget basis, the budget being published two weeks before each legislature meets, to give ample time for objection to be filed.

That the State business is conducted honestly, every department and institution have been put on a modern accounting basis and being audited every six months.

That there are no more scandals such as the expenditure of $52,000,000 during fourteen years on state institutions without an audit.

That the school children of the State get their text-books free instead of paying twice their cost for the benefit of a ring of contractors.

That the State University, ranking second in the United States, after years of neglect, has been given modern buildings and support at a cost of several million dollars. That this same university in four years has developed its Agricultural College and other departments to a degree that has astonished the teaching world.

That California's hospitals for the insane have been modernized at tremendous cost, and the patients recognized as sick people instead of criminals. That the entire food supply and feeding of the insane and all other inmates of State institutions has been placed under the absolute control of the Professor of Chemistry of the University of California, a noted expert on Foods.

That California has built three new Normal schools, and modernized all her other institutions.

That California has built the finest system of highways to be found in the United States, expending $18,000,000 without a breath of scandal. That California's Highway Engineer has been borrowed by the United States government to aid it.

That California has a Railroad Commission, which while dealing justly with the public utility corporations, has saved to the traveling public, consumers and shippers by its decisions $7,000,000 a year. That this Commission has vastly improved the service of the public utilities, and eliminated from the capitalization of California utilities the system of "watering" stock.

That California has a Workmen's Compensation Act, which protects the maimed employee and his widow and orphans in case of death. That this law today has the hearty approval of ninety per cent of the employers of the State.

That the State of California has a Compensation Insurance Department which has protected employers from being mulcted by liability accident concerns. That this Bureau enforced a reduction of all liability insurance rates, and at the end of a year not only paid its entire cost, but paid its policy holders a substantial rebate.

That the State of California has a Civil Service law, most drastic in its provisions.

That the State Board of Harbor Commissioners of the Port of San Francisco has constructed in that harbor the finest system of modern wharves and piers in the world. That this same board has not only modernized San Francisco's harbors and wharves, but cleared her waterfront of shacks and obstructions and made it the marvel of visiting harbor masters and constructors.

That the State of California has wiped out the curse of child labor, turning the children into the schools instead of factories and sweatshops, and given its womanhood an eight-hour workday, without disturbing the business of the State or bankrupting a single merchant.

That the State of California has gone to the rescue of the farmers of the State and taken up the problem of marketing their products. That one of the State's most successful merchants is the Director of its Market Association.

That the State of California, through the University of California and the Reclamation Board, has taken up the problem of harnessing its rivers and conserving its overflow waters for the benefit of arid lands.

These are but some of the things California has done in five years. How much better engaged we would be making these facts known to the world, instead of obscuring them all by falsehood in the attempt to discredit the man who either did these things or made them possible.

The reason why certain newspapers and some commercial interests do not want the facts above quoted known is contained in the first recital of accomplishments. "No private corporation today controls California's government."

ANYTHING TO BEAT JOHNSON

(From Santa Maria Vidette.) Hiram Johnson, candidate for the United States Senate, is being opposed by all the old gang of political exploiters. The San Francisco Argonaut spills a whole lot of bunk and vituperation. The Crocker, De-Young, Otis combination is rampant and gives evidence of proposed use of every means to defeat Johnson at the primaries.

From advance misrepresentations about Johnson, it appears the old Santa Cruz convention manipulators will comb the State to try to find excuses to vilify Johnson.

But the voters know that Johnson "kept the faith" with the whole people of California. His administration has been open and above board, and it is only by innuendo and misrepresentation that he can be attacked.

PROUD OPPORTUNITY FOR STATE

(From Visalia Delta.) California should be proud of the opportunity of offering to the nation the services of a man with the qualities of Governor Johnson. We need men of his caliber, with his vision and high ideals, in the Senate of the United States.

Characteristically the Governor is taking his candidacy to the people, as he has always taken his problems in the past. He has not placed his willingness for service before any conferences of political bosses for their O. K., but he is going directly to voters.

EVERYBODY FOR JOHNSON

(From the Kingsburg Recorder) The Recorder has already expressed itself as in favor of Governor Johnson for United States Senator to succeed Senator Works. It is not necessary in this community to talk much to convince a great majority of our people that Governor Johnson is by far the best man for this important place, both in point of ability and experience, as well as in devotion to the best interests of the people and the highest ideals of government.

FORMER SPEAKER HEWITT FOR JOHNSON

"Governor Hiram W. Johnson is my choice for United States Senator and he's going to win as sure as the sun sets in the West," said A. H. Hewitt, local attorney and Republican speaker of the Assembly in 1911, in discussing the outcome of the senatorial fight.

"I'm for Governor Johnson for United States Senator because I want to see a man elected who will let the people know that California is part of the United States. And if there is a man in the State who is qualified to fill the bill it's Hiram W. Johnson.

"There are a few papers in the State which are endeavoring strongly to impress upon the people of the State that the South is entitled to the Senator.

"I'm sure the people of the South will realize that Governor Johnson is the right man for the place in the Senate as they know that he will do things for all the State.

"After Hirma Johnson was elected conditions in the Legislature changed and the Southern Pacific lobbyist who for years had worn out the carpets in the assembly chamber walking up and down the aisles directing the vote on measures were conspicuous by their absence.

"I am a Republican. I am for Governor Hiram W. Johnson for United States Senator and there are thousands of other good Republicans up and down the State who are just like me."

THOROUGHBREDS AT STATE FAIR

For the first time in several years provision is made for thoroughbred horses in the premium list of the California State Fair which opens at Sacramento September 2. Honeywood, premier stallion of George Wingfield, of the Nevada Stock Farm, is among the notable entries received.

The light harness horses will follow in a large element on the program during the races each afternoon, and in addition a number of the favorite animals will be shown to halter in the Cowell stable of Santa Cruz lead in these entries.

Liberal premiums for the five-gaited and three-gaited classes have brought out a large entry list most of which will be shown during the night horse show. The competition under the saddle will take place on the tan bark ring in the horse show tent.

"The action of the well constructed motor, clutch, springs and other mechanical parts of a car, of course, assist in delivering riding comfort to the passengers, but the four tires are the biggest factor when comfort is taken into consideration," says H. Lovell Scott, the local distributor for the popular Racine Horse Shoe Tires.

"The utmost luxury in riding comfort can only be had by using quality tires of extreme resiliency, those that are full of 'life' and retain that vital feature as long as the tires are used.

"The four tires receive the brunt of a million and one destructive jars and jolts with every mile of service rendered and in addition to this, the entire weight of the car and passengers rests upon four points of a few square inches each on the surface. Every stone or other obstruction encountered strikes a blow of hundreds of pounds, which, if it were not absorbed by the tires would be transmitted like the snap of a whip through the wheel, axle and springs, way back to the remotest part of the car.

"This constant pounding on the tread of the tire is not the only punishment. Think of the tremendous wallop the tires get every time the car rounds a turn at a good rate of speed and the whole weight of the car is thrown against the sides of the tires. First one side and then the other catches it with a cruel twist. Then the extremes of heat and cold, the hot pavements and dry dusty roads all do constant battle to every fiber in the tire. If it were possible for the motorist to constantly watch one square inch of a tire for any length of time and note the constant twisting, grinding, pulling, and wrenching it gets he would have more respect for those guardians of his comfort and preservers of car and mechanism."
